

Emergency Family Plan

Every family should have an emergency plan. This packet helps you create one, regardless of immigration status.

It includes templates to organize emergency contacts, create a list of people to help with your case, important documents, and, if needed, a short-term guardianship.

Make a Child Care Plan

Talk to Your Children About Your Plan

- Reassure your children they'll be cared for if you're unable to, and tell them who will look after them until you can.

Choose a Caregiver for Your Children if You Are Unable To

- Talk to potential caregivers about being emergency contacts.
- Memorize their phone numbers, and ensure your children do too.
- Let your children know who can and cannot pick them up from school and who will care for them.
- Schools may only release your child to designated adults.
- Regularly update emergency contact and release forms for school, afterschool, daycare, and other programs.
- Include names of those who can and cannot pick up your child.

Write Down Instructions for Your Child's Medical Conditions and Medications

- Write down your child's medical conditions, allergies, medications, doctor, and health insurance details.
- Keep a copy in your emergency binder.
- Provide copies to your child's school and designated caregiver.
- Ensure your child knows where to find this information if needed.

Make Sure Your Children All Have Passports

- If your child was born in the U.S., visit www.travel.state.gov for U.S. passport information.
- If your child was born in your home country, check with your embassy or consulate about getting a passport.
- You can also register your U.S.-born child's birth with your home country's government (such as at your consulate) for potential benefits, including possible citizenship.

Do I have to hire a lawyer and go to court to request a guardian for my children?

Not necessarily. There are several types of guardianship under Illinois law.

- Plenary (long-term) and standby guardianships require going to court.
 - In Chicago, you can file these cases without a lawyer; the Guardianship Assistance Desk at 69 W. Washington can help with paperwork.
- Short-term guardianship does not require court involvement.
 - To create a short-term guardianship, both the parent and guardian must sign a form in front of two witnesses.
 - A short-term guardianship lasts up to 365 days, but can be revoked at any time by the parent.
